

Land Acquisition Target Zones

This site plan shows zones to be targeted for future land acquisitions through the year 2020. Each target zone is classified in terms of priority with the first priority perceived as having the greatest pressure from encroaching development and the third priority perceived as having the least pressure. Acreage goals are indicated for each target zone and for each priority classification.

