

SUMMARY OF STUDY

Little White Oak Bayou and Halls Bayou Sediment Study.

2009. AECOM. Details a comparative evaluation of the properties of water and sediment in a stream with no wastewater discharges vs. a stream with many wastewater discharges. There was no difference between bacteria levels in the water column between the streams, but the stream with wastewater discharges did contain higher levels of nutrients and bacteria than the stream without wastewater discharges.